

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20201

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

January 29, 1969

Dear Dan:

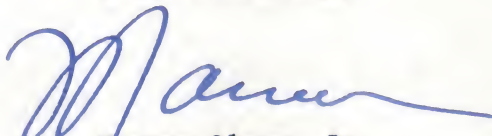

I have made a few changes in the paper that you discussed at the meetings of the American Economic Association.

On pages 13 and 14 I elaborated my argument somewhat to emphasize its application to black power separatism. I think your comments apply fully as well to what I have said now as to what was in the original paper. I have, in any event, pointed out in a footnote that I have made this change in response to your criticism. Still, it is possible you would feel that this would be an unfair change, so I would, of course, be happy to go back to the original paper should you prefer that.

Just let me know if you would have any difficulties with the changes I have made.

Thanks again for your most helpful and generous comments.

Yours sincerely,

Mancur Olson, Jr.
Deputy Assistant Secretary
(Social Indicators)

Professor Daniel Ellsberg
RAND Corporation
1700 Main Street
Santa Monica, California 90401

Enclosure

1. The first part of the report is devoted to a description of the work done during the year. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the work and a detailed account of the results of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.

2. The second part of the report is devoted to a discussion of the results of the work. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the results and a detailed account of the results of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.

3. The third part of the report is devoted to a discussion of the conclusions of the work. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the conclusions and a detailed account of the conclusions of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.

4. The fourth part of the report is devoted to a discussion of the future work. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the future work and a detailed account of the future work of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.

5. The fifth part of the report is devoted to a discussion of the references. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the references and a detailed account of the references of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.

6. The sixth part of the report is devoted to a discussion of the appendices. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the appendices and a detailed account of the appendices of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.

7. The seventh part of the report is devoted to a discussion of the index. It is divided into two main sections: a general summary of the index and a detailed account of the index of the various experiments. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section. The general summary is given in the first section, and the detailed account is given in the second section.